His meticulous attention to detail is evident in the high-quality work he consistently produces. Bill's capability to fulfill multiple project requests simultaneously while meeting tight deadlines showcases his efficiency and dedication.

He demonstrates a remarkable ability to work autonomously, showcasing independence and a quick-learning aptitude. His collaborative spirit and effective communication skills make him an asset to any team or project.

- Shai Shefer / CEO / Salvona Technologies, Chemical Manufacturing, Skin and Hair Care Products

"Bill's broad and extensive experience and creative talents have helped me build my business and maintain long-term diversified relationships. Whether I need unique graphic design, photography, production services or just a partner to help brainstorm creative concepts, I can always count on Bill to contribute to a final product that will always satisfy the needs and goals of my clients."

- Ken Hertzell / Kenetwork Communications, Inc., Ad Agency

"I have worked with many creative agencies and design firms, but Bill Nyman has been my "go to" guy for the past 20 years. Bill Nyman provides creative, detail-oriented work that is always delivered on time, with personal concierge-like service. I have no hesitation to recommend him for anyone looking for great work and better service!"

- Paul Viggiano / GSK, Pharmaceuticals Client

"Bill was chosen from various applicants due to his extensive experience, kind demeanor, and inquisitive nature. He would not hesitate to ask a question to ensure he executed assignments with full understanding of the end goal.

Bill's knowledge of design programs and software is exemplary; he often provided advice on best practices for efficient production and archiving. Bill brought a fresh perspective to Edmund Optics' marketing material and the team is grateful for his contributions. I highly recommend him; I believe he would be a great asset to any design team."

- *Gretchen Morris / Supervisor
Edmund Optics, Optical Manufacturer*

"I was initially impressed with Bill's communication skills, attention to detail and professionalism. He offered support in a variety of areas including client projects and materials for our live events and webcasts. He worked on a range of print and digital materials including: workbooks, ads, web banners and social posts. He was able to handle strict pharmaceutical standards with ease and deliver high quality work.

Getting him up speed was easy, he was able to step in where we needed him most. He understood our file structure and wasn't afraid to reach out to other team members if he had any questions. Bill's strong design skills and years of experience made him a valuable asset to the team. As a hard-working freelancer and a great team player, Bill is a strong candidate for future creative opportunities."

- Erin Hughes / Creative Director / MJH Life Sciences
